

Beltsjeblom R.

YOUTH

Keizer út de Grachten (by Stendert 447) acquired the first ever Friesian Colt Championship. No wonder, as keizer is the Dutch word for emperor. Keizer is bred and owned by Mr Schothorst from Soest.

Josien K (by Tymon 456) is the new and first ever Friesian Filly Champion. This beautiful young horse is bred by Mr Kuiper from Oosterend and owned by Het Swarte Paert in Hemrik.

One-year-old Hylkje fan de Tsjoender (by Mewes 438) (breeder/owner L. Heida, Wezuperburg) acquired the title in her category and also got hold of the overall Youth Championship. No wonder. Her name translates to something like "the sorcerer's child". She sure did her magic in Drachten, that's for sure.

Ditske II D. (by Maurits 437) owned by W.H. Derksen from Oosterhout is the new Champion with the two year olds. The Damen family in Geldermalsen bred this Overall Vice Youth Champion.

Leading her category and also the Three-Year-Old Champion is Beltsjeblom R. provisional Kroon (Jerke 434 Sport), bred by DRYAS in Lunteren and owned by Galloper Stud in Berkel en Rodenrijs.

SPORT

The Centrale Mare Inspection also hosted the 2011 talent test finales, dressage as well as in harness. 53 Horses were invited at the regional Breeding Days to compete in the Drachten dressage talent final.

Scoring a wonderful 81 points, trotting phenomenon Renske U. Kroon (by Beart 411 Sport) prolonged last year's Overall Title. The judges were simply thrilled with her movements and presentation.

In the category four-year-old stallions and geldings German-owned Ytsen fan Galinga State (by Tsjabring 429 Sport) took the lead, ridden by the Stefanie Wittman. Pluto fan Ljocht en Skaed (by Wierd 409 Sport) headed the five and six-year-old stallions and geldings ridden by Marrit Reusien. At the Dutch Outdoor Dressage Championships a week later the combination also acquired the Z1 titel. Marrit was also in the saddle of the winner in the four-year-old mares category:

Wilma fan 't Wyldpaed Ster (by Time 398). Obviously, Renske U. also headed her category of five and six-year-old mares, ridden by Ykje Baron. Fourteen horses competed in the harness final. In the capable hands of Arie van Dijk Wopke van de Grote Overbrug (by Haitse 425 Sport) marched to victory. The judges were thrilled to witness such an exemplary harness horse. It seems owners are a bit hesitant presenting their mares in harness. 'Waltzing Lady' Walsdame Ster (by Jasper 366P Sport) showed no hesitation and became most talented harness mare.
